

Kumaran Damodaran, Ph.D.

Portfolio Manager, Emerging Markets Debt, Global Sovereign, and Asset Allocation
Stone Harbor Investment Partners

Kumaran Damodaran is a portfolio manager for emerging markets debt, global sovereign, and asset allocation at Stone Harbor Investment Partners, an investment management affiliate of Virtus Investment Partners.

Prior to joining Stone Harbor in 2015, Mr. Damodaran was the lead emerging markets macro portfolio manager at GLG Partners in London. Previously, he was an executive vice president and emerging markets portfolio manager at PIMCO in Newport Beach, California. Before joining PIMCO, Mr. Damodaran was a senior vice president and trader in Latin American local market rates at Lehman Brothers in New York. Earlier in his career, he served as a director at Credit Suisse where he held various positions in emerging markets credit, rates, and currency derivatives trading in both London and New York.

Mr. Damodaran earned a Ph.D. in theoretical physics from Cambridge University as a Marshall Scholar and National Science Foundation graduate fellow. He earned an A.B. in physics with a certificate in applied and computational mathematics from Princeton University. He began working in the investment industry in 2000.